By addressing the first three critical exhibiting success factors, you are well on your way to a successful exhibiting experience. Don't stop now, because there are two more factors to getting a financial return on your exhibiting investment.

CRITICAL SUCCESS FACTOR #4: LEAD MANAGEMENT

Whatever orders you write at the show are just the tip of the iceberg; by taking good leads and following up you can get a much greater ROI.

The key to generating QUALITY leads is make sure each lead includes four critical factors:

- ✓ Somebody from your company personally interacted with the buyer
- ✓ Key qualifying questions were asked
- ✓ Answers were captured or documented
- ✓ A next step was identified and agreed upon by the visitor

1. Get together with your sales team and ask, "What information should we capture to help us better qualify and value the lead?"

- Typical information areas might include: email address, product interest & level of interest, buying role and/or influence, evaluation and/or decision team, competitors buying from or looking at, purchase timeframe or season, next action step, other?

2. Organize this information into the natural flow of conversation and create a lead qualification and capture device. Whether you use a paper form, or you rent and customize the show lead retrieval system, this will make a big difference in the quality of information you capture.

- Sample paper lead form:

The form is titled "Company OPPORTUNITY CARD" and includes the following sections:

- Contact information: Name, Company, Direct Phone, E-mail.
- Relationship with company: Customer, Prospect, Suspect, Other.
- Marketing recon: How did you LEARN ABOUT EXHIBIT? (Walk-by, Mail, E-mail, Print ad, Web ad, Referral, Other).
- Situational questions: Type of COMPANY? (Wholesale, Retail, Direct); Job FUNCTION? (Logistics, Operations, IT, Executive); Using PRODUCT SERVICE? (Yes, No, Some What).
- Area of interest: GOALS/PROBLEMS? (Problem, Problem, Problem, Other).
- Qualification questions: OPPORTUNITY? (Product, Product, Service, Service).
- Next action: ROLE in Evaluation/Decision? (Engineer, Technical, Operations, Executive, Environmental, Influencer, Decision Maker).
- Space for free hand notes: EVALUATION Stage? (Assessing Needs, Evaluating Options, Supplier Evaluation, Product RFP RFQ); TIMEFRAME? (Yes, No, If Yes...); What is our Next ACTION? (Information, Over, Mail, E-Mail, Call, Yes, No, Appointment, Call for list, Show, Action, Site Visit, Operation Proposal, Address mail list, Show, Immediate, 1-10 days, 11 days+).
- Priority: A - B - C. Taken by: _____

- 3. Train your booth staff on asking the questions in the proper sequence, and using the capture device, before you get to the booth.
- 4. To get visitors to commit to the next step, avoid assuming that they have interest. Be sure to ask the visitor what their level of interest in your products is?, and what they think the your next step should be?
- 5. Be ready to physically give them, or email them, follow-up information on the spot. Research has proven speed of response dramatically increases lead conversion rate.
- 6. Develop your lead follow-up plan before coming to the show, so you can follow-up quickly.

7. And finally, do not give up too quickly on leads. Your philosophy should be “any lead worth taking is worth following up on”, and you’re going to stay in touch with each lead for as long as it takes. Be there when the buyer is ready to buy, not just when you’re ready to sell!

Be sure to visit the Exhibitor Success & ROI Center web page for additional resources to help manage your exhibit program. We highly recommend reading the Closed Loop Lead Management article.

Lastly, please note we are providing new exhibitors with an exhibiting effectiveness booth evaluation. During open exhibit hall hours, a highly experienced trade show expert will visit your exhibit and observe your exhibit in action. They will not need to interrupt your booth activities during this process. However, the evaluator will be taking photos of your booth, which will only be used in a confidential report you’ll receive.

Shortly after the show, you will be emailed an Exhibiting Effectiveness Evaluation Report highlighting areas of effectiveness and identifying potential areas that can be improved so your company gets more value and results.

If you have any questions, please feel free to reach out to your account executive.
